4:35 p.m. Round I Workshops

Presidents – Over the River and Through the Woods, Chapter Presidents Will Go Ciera Ballmer
(Note: Presidents will stay together in same workshop room for Rounds I, II and II)

As presidents, we will be leading the way through our chapter’s FFA year. Together in this workshop, we will take a sneak peek at what our year will have in store. In addition, we will come out with some essentials to help us on our journey along the way!

Vice Presidents – The Hero of the Chapter Sam Pinchart

Come and learn about how to successfully create a Program of Activities (POA). Then, we’ll discover how to save the day with committee work!

Secretaries – Writing Our Fairy Tales Chapter by Chapter Liz Grady

Who’s writing the Fairy Tale? In this workshop, we will discover the responsibilities of the chapter secretary and why they are important! Learn about writing quality meetings minutes and formal correspondence.

Treasurers – Snow White and the $7.00 Elisha Riley

Money can be hard to earn with poison apples stopping you! In this workshop we will explore the wide variety of ways to fundraise for your chapter, how to balance the chapter’s income and expenses, and learn how to live out our fairytale as treasurers!

Reporters – Sharing FFA News throughout the Land Meikah Dado

Capturing and sharing each and every happily ever after is the topic throughout this workshop. We will learn how to manage social media, edit pictures, and contact local newspapers to share our fairytale of FFA!

Sentinels – Stationed by the Drawbridge Sam Jesse

Through this drawbridge pass many friends of the FFA. Sentinels come and grasp a better understanding of your duties and learn all about how to make your kingdoms more inviting to members.

Parliamentarians – Robert’s Rules the Kingdom Kathryn Lampi

Do you want to help rule the Kingdom? In this workshop we will be discussing the responsibilities of the Parliamentarian so that that you too can rule the kingdom like Robert.

Other Officers and Committee Chairs – Cinderella & The Three Little Pigs Amelia Hayden

While the people on our teams may not be a part of our fairytale, they still have an important role to play in the happily ever after of our chapter. In this workshop, officers will learn about different ways their teammates might communicate and how we can use those different strengths to benefit our team.

Building your Home in the FFA - Middle School Members Ciara Koboski

Just like the three little pigs, we will be able to learn about the many ways that we can build our home in the FFA. We will also be learning how to overcome obstacles that may arise in the future. Come ready and excited to build the foundation to your home.

Other Members – Live Your Why: The Reason Behind the FFairy Tale Brooke Brantner and Morgan Fitzsimmons

FFA members not in an officer position will discover the reason behind the State FFA Theme: Live Your Why! Members will be able to explain their why and allow their chapter to live out its FFairy Tale.

5:20 p.m. – 5:55 p.m. Round II Workshops

LDE - This Event Feels Just Right!

Will the kingdom be able to go through their meetings? Can they discuss topics properly? In this workshop we will find out the opportunities within Leadership Development Events and discover which event fits you!

Meikah Dado

The Queen's Issues

Mirror mirror on the wall, who's the most resourceful advocate of them all? In this interactive workshop we will look at common agricultural issues, and what it means to be an advocate for agriculture and the FFA!

Brooke Brantner

Professionalism in the Ballroom

This session is jam-packed with tips to help you make a great first impression. We'll be guaranteed to dance our way through our future endeavors with high class professionalism.

Ciara Koboski

Stars and Degrees and Proficiencies, Oh My!

Filling out an application can be stressful, right? Come and learn some tips for filling out these applications, requirements we have to reach, and how easy they can be. You will know how to be prepared for any degree, star or proficiency application and how rewarding they are!

Morgan Fitzsimmons

Creating the Next Chapter

How will you write your next chapter? This workshop will explore careers in agriculture and the many opportunities available after high school in FFA and agriculture.

Liz Grady

Telling our Fairytale

Just as fairytales have been passed down for generations, so too has the tradition of the blue corduroy jacket. Learn how to uphold these traditions and how to tell your story with a quality first impression.

Sam Jesse

Knights of the Round Table

The knights will gather together during this workshop to better serve their chapters by discussing agriculture and FFA topics. We will be able to share our own experiences and learn from others in this great sharing session!

Kathryn Lampi

Meanwhile, on the outskirts of the castle...

In this fun, interactive session, we will reveal the importance of community service, learn eye opening facts about World Hunger, and will work together to plan our own community service projects to create a happy ending to our own fairytale stories!

Elisha Riley

The Greatest Storyteller of Them All

A guide to becoming the greatest storyteller, an Agricultural Instructor! Come and check out the benefits of becoming an agriculture teacher. Also we'll see how we can effectively tell our story and be an advocate for Agriculture. Then we'll set goals for how to get our story off to press!

Sam Pinchart

Planning the Ball

Whether it's managing our time or organizing transportation so you don't have to ride a pumpkin, we will learn about all the unnoticed parts of planning events for our chapter so that we can have a fantastic time at the ball!

Amelia Hayden
