

State FFA Convention Delegates

State Delegate Process

Delegates are to register by 8:30 a.m. on Tuesday June 13. Every delegate will be assigned a committee based on what was indicated through the online registration system. Advisors must select committee choices for delegates, or they will not be assigned. Committees will meet at 8:45 a.m. in Hall D. Following committee meetings, there will be a leadership workshop for delegates. The Business Session will begin at 10:00 a.m.

Chapter advisors are required to submit their Delegates names and committee choices online by May 15. Delegate registration is located at <http://wisconsinffa.org/chapteradmin>

Delegates can select the top three committees, they would be interested in. The State FFA President will then make the final assignments. This as an excellent way to get valuable member input. Final committee reports will be read at the delegate business session.

Committees include:

1. Agriculture Education Teacher Recruitment
2. Middle School Opportunities and Recruitment
3. Membership Recruitment Ideas
4. New and Better Ways to Support our FFA Advisors
5. Connecting FFA Opportunities to Agriculture Industry
6. State FFA Officer Experience
7. Public Speaking Workshops and Training
8. Community Service Activities - Local and State Ideas
9. Evaluation of the State FFA Officer Election Process
10. Providing FFA Resources to Stakeholders

SELECTING OFFICIAL CHAPTER DELEGATES

In order to have a successful and productive convention business session, there needs to be well informed and prepared delegates. The Wisconsin Association of FFA recommends the following criteria when your chapter is selecting official delegates to represent your chapter. Each chapter is allowed 2 official delegates. Delegate names must be submitted on the State FFA Convention Online Registration by May 15 to be registered and assigned a committee.

1. Delegates must have received Chapter FFA Degree or State FFA Degree. (Stated in WI FFA Constitution)
2. Delegates are well versed in parliamentary procedure.
3. Delegates must have attended at least 1 state or national level leadership development conference.
4. Delegates have a good, solid knowledge base of the FFA on the chapter and state levels.
5. Delegates have a mature attitude about their duties and are willing to take on responsibility.
6. Delegates are able to think well on their feet and communicate well with others.
7. Delegates have a basic understanding of the qualities of a good state officer and are able to make wise decisions from evaluating another's performance.
