Charting the Captain's Course

Remember – Chapter President's you stay in the same workshop room for both Rounds I and II

Each chapter president will take on the role of a captain as they set sail on the journey of a new year. To steer the chapter in the right direction, each captain will need to chart the course for the year to come. Dive into the depths of the great unknown to find out what course you will take this year as captain of your ship.

Ethan Giebel

Vice Presidents – Assistin' ye Captain

All ye vice presidents come to the call of ye captain to assist in running the ship! We will make sure ye know the entire crew so they are fulfilling their duties. What else must ye do to assist the captain? You will leave with all the answers to find that treasure.

Alissa Milonczyk and Ashleigh Schlewitz

Secretaries – Scribing with Smee

Calling all secretaries to board the ship to Secretary Island. Once at the island, we will find treasures in the areas of meeting minutes and thank you notes to strengthen your voyage for the remainder of the school year.

Nicole Petrie

Treasurers – Dealin' with de' Treasure

Come all chapter treasurers as we set sail on an exciting quest looking for treasure. We are going to learn your role as the treasurer, discuss ways to raise treasure for your chapters, and discover how to distribute ye' treasure.

Brian Guza

Reporters – Deck Hands: Reporting for Duty

Ahoy to the chapter reporters! Hop on deck and learn all about your duties for taking pictures, delivering the news through the chapter newsletter, and talking to the press. And remember, join the crew now or "ye be walkin' the plank!"

Isaac Christenson

Sentinels – Maroon No Matey

Ahoy sentinels! All hands on deck to learn how we make sure no one is marooned on a desert island in the FFA. You never know when your scallywag skills will be needed to save your ship!

Sara Raschein

Parliamentarians – Obeying Captain Robert's Order

All hands on deck, Captain Robert's approaching. Gather your notes and we'll stay afloat as we learn his rules and understand the tools to parliamentary procedure.

Stacey Kunde

Other Officers and Committee Chairs – Bein' a Great Mate to ye Crew

Learn to be dedicated to your crew so you can become a great shipmate. In this workshop, we will prepare to hold each crew member accountable to be the best crew mate on ye ship.

Katie Dreier and Kayla Hack

Middle School – Sea of Opportunities

Jump on board mates as we sail the sea of opportunities available in the FFA. There will be stops along the ways at contests available for middle school members. As we finish our journey, we will dock our ships at the conferences and conventions port.

Abbie Baker

Being An Effective Member

If you don't serve in the capacity of an officer or committee chair, join the National FFA Officer for a workshop on how to be an effective member in your chapter. Effective members are the key to any successful chapter!!!

National FFA Officer

5:05 – 5:40 p.m. Round II Workshop

The Social Privateer

You've been hired to oversee surfing the web by a private vessel and it is your duty to voyage on a journey and discover all you need to know about the internet, Facebook, and email. As the captain of your own ship, your actions weigh heavily on that journey.

Isaac Christenson

Set Sail on Your Future

Raise the anchors and set your course steering toward the new horizons through FFA and ag careers. We will grasp the importance of agricultural literacy.

Ashleigh Schlewitz

Raising Your Sails to the High Seas

Raise your sails to set SMART goals and prioritize time. As we board the ship, we will learn the in's and out's of goals and how to make the most of our time on the deck. By the end of this workshop, we will be up in the high seas.

Brian Guza

Learn ye Lingo

As we swab the deck and travel the sea, we will encounter challenges in our communication. Join us as we learn how to speak ye' lingo with confidence and poise and where you can showcase your skills in a speaking contest.

Abbie Baker*Raising the Right Flag

Why raise the wrong flag when you can follow these steps and impress every matey ye meet! Join the crew where we will discuss how to best talk to new crew members or other mateys.

Katie Dreier*All Aboard the Leader Ship

Don't miss the chance to catch a ride on the Leader Ship and let your leadership style sail! Learn how to be a part of the best ship crew around and discover new places to sail to when you feel like building your skills.

Sara Raschein*Recruit and Retain ye Crew

Learn how to recruit more pirates into your crew to help sail ye ship, but be careful! Make sure ye crew is settin' the sails for your journey instead of snoozing below deck. Ye can't find the treasure without a hard workin' crew.

Alissa Milonczyk*Signaling the Alliance

Lost at sea and don't know who to signal for help? Grab ye compass and ye map as we reroute our course with the pirate alliances – these are some very important partners.

Stacey Kunde*Scallywagin' to ye Crow's Nest

All shipmates must take the voyage to improve their work habits aboard the ship. While at this crew training, you will learn the basics of SAE, differences between placement, entrepreneurship, exploratory and research areas. Finally, crew you will learn all of the different proficiency areas to be sure you are fit for the ship to sail for years to come!

Nicole Petrie*Hit the Deck to Help Others

Hit the deck to help others is a fun filled workshop where you will learn all about service. Let's step back and remove our eye patches and take a look at the people and community around us. Where can we help? How do we help? We will dive into the effect service has on our crew. What kind of impact can we make?

Kayla Hack*Getting Started in the FFA (Only offered second round)

This workshop is for Jr. High Members. Learn what you can do to make the most of your FFA membership. The National FFA Officer will get you excited and ready to take on the adventure awaiting you in the FFA organization.
